Notice of Election.

Notice is hereby given to the qualified voters of the Waverly Special Road District of Lafayette County, Missouri, that a special election will be held in said Special Road District on at the following voting places: At the store of A. C. Mickie, in the Town of Hodge, which Town is also known as Edwards Station, or Edwards, and at the Mayor's office in the City of Waverly; all in Lafayette County, Missouri, and all in said Special Road District, for the purpose of voting on a proposition to issue the road bonds of said Waverly Special Road District of Lafayette County, Missouri, to the amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00); that the maximum rate of interest such bonds are to bear is Six (6) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. This notice of said special election is ordered to be published once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in the City of Lexington in said Lafayette County, there being no newspaper published within said Special Road District.

The polls of said election will be opened at Six o'clock a. m. and remain open until Seven o'clock p. m. of said day.

Dated this the Tenth day of July, 1922.

Done by order of the Board of Commissioners of Waverly Special Road District of Lafayette County, Missouri.

WILLIAM K. GUENTHER, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Waverly Special Road District of Lafayette County, Missouri.

WILLIAM H. WESSEL, Clerk of the Board of Commissioners of Waverly Special Road District of Lafayette County, Missouri.

Whereas, The Lexington College for Young Women, A Corporation of Missouri, by its certain Deed of Trust dated April 21st, 1915, and recorded in Book 221, at page 114, in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in and for Lafayette County, Missouri, conveyed to the undersigned as trustee, the following described real estate, lying and being in the County of Lafayette and in the State of Missouri, namely: Beginning at an old oak stake at the northeast corner of a lot of land conveyed by Morgan Day in June, 1844, to one George Soister, said corner being on south side of South Street and opposite the M. E. Church property, and running thence west along the south line of South Street forty-eight (48) feet and ten inches (10) to the northeast corner of a lot formerly owned by Morgan Day afterwards by William B. Waddell and now by Lexington College for Women, thence south along the east side of Waddell lot as held by him four hundred and fifty (450) feet to a stake in the north line of the lot formerly owned by Stephen White, thence east with said line forty-eight (48) feet and ten (10) inches to a stake at the southwest corner of lot conveyed by said Day to Bowman, thence north along the west line of said Bowman lot four hundred and fifty (450) feet to the beginning, and being the lot conveyed by Adamson, Sheriff, to John E. Runyon, by Deed Recorded in Book 2-1, page 549, except five and one-half (5½) feet off the east side thereof, conveyed to E. J. and J. C. McGrew, Trustees. Also another tract of land described as follows:

Beginning at a mulberry stake in the west line of Section thirty-four (34), Township fifty-one (51), Range twenty-seven (27), near to and between two elm stumps and the old

Lexington Graveyard, thence with the south line of South Street in the First Addition to Lexington, Missouri, north eighty-two and one-half (82½) degrees east one hundred and thirty feet (130) to a stake, thence south three hundred and four (304) feet to the north line of the Baptist Parsonage lot, being a point one hundred and fifty-six (156) feet north of the north line of another tract or parcel of land formerly owned by Morgan Day and conveyed by him to Theodore Gosewisch, thence west along the north line of said parsonage lot one hundred and thirty feet (130) to a stake, thence north three hundred and four (304) feet to the beginning and being former property of Baptist Female College now Lexington College for Young Women, in trust to secure the payment of the promissory notes in said Deed of Trust described; and, whereas, default having been made in the payment of interest on said notes; now, therefore, I the said trustee at the request of the legal holder of said notes hereby give notice that I will on between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M. and 5 o'clock P. M. of that day, at the Court House Door, in the City of Lexington, Lafayette County, Missouri, proceed to sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, the above described real estate, for the purpose of satisfying the said notes and the cost of executing this trust.

HENRY C. WALLACE, Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas, Hycetus McCorkle and Alice McCorkle, his wife, (both now more than nine months dead), by their certain deed of trust, dated the 5th day of April, 1905, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in Lafayette County, Missouri, in Book 187 page 85, conveyed to the undersigned trustee the real estate hereinafter described to secure the payment of the promissory note in said deed of trust described; and whereas after the death of said Hycetus McCorkle, on September 5th, 1909, his heirs at law assumed the payment of said note and at various times thereafter made payments of principal and interest thereon, the last payment having been made on August 5th, 1919; and whereas there has been a failure to comply with the terms and conditions of said note, and there is default in the payment thereof, and there is a sum of money due thereon which remains unpaid; Now, Therefore, I, the said Trustee, at the request of the legal holder of said note, hereby give notice that I will on between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the Court House front door in the City of Lexington, Lafayette County, Missouri, proceed to sell and will sell, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the real estate in said deed of trust described, situate in Lafayette County, Missouri, to-wit: The northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section thirty (30) Township fifty-one (51) Range twenty-six (26), for the purpose of paying the balance due on said note and the costs and expenses of this sale.

Given under my hand this the 14th day of July, 1922.

F. LEE WALLACE, Trustee.
